No. 6 - Nobody - Part One

CUE: MOTHER DEAR:

"That's a fine way to talk. You'd think I taught her no manners."

Freely JOYCE: "Every day, striving to keep a gracious home,

JOYCE: (cont.) "preparing meals from the meagerest of means. Giving lessons to privileged brats!"

JOYCE: (cont.) "If that's what it's like to have children it's just as well we didn't have any."
SHE looks over at GILBERT, who is contentedly polishing his big porcelain foot.

9

JOYCE: "I could have been somebody. I should have been somebody. Everyone said I had a lovely voice --"

13

MOTHER DEAR: "What did I tell you about your posture, Joyce! Nobody wants to grow a hump!"
