4 don't re - lish tell - ing her "No!" But then I think— what if I

7 fail her?— 8 How can I just let her go? 9

10 I strive to be a good preach-er I try not to go o-ver - board. But

14 then I think— if I can't reach her how can I face my Lord? 17

18 Heav - en help me should - er my— load. Ev - 'ry day's a struggle, Still,

22 some-one's got to take the high— road If I don't, who will? 25

26 I be-came— a man of God— to do His work, to spread His word to 30 ease some pain and dry some tears. That was the plan. But 34

I might have thought twice if on - ly I knew that I'd spend all of my time say - ing

40 "Ainh, ainh, ainh, no, no! Don't do that!" See,

43 ev - 'ry-one prays for sal - va-tion. I'm hap-py to give them the tools. The

47 prob-lem is— here's my frus - tra-tion— no-bod - y wants to have rules. So

51 heav - en help me with my la - bors How can you ex -

54 - pect one man— to save his fam - 'ly and his neigh - bors?

57 Heav - en help me Oh, heav - en help me—
